

We Beheld His Glory – The transfiguration; John 1:14; Gal. 5:1; Psalm 80:15

Incorporating Hymn 210 from the Christadelphian Hymn Book (2002)

We beheld His glory!

O master it is good to be high on the mountain here with thee;
Where stand revealed to mortal gaze thy faithful saints of other days;
Who once received on Horeb's height eternal laws of truth and right;
Or caught the still small whisper, higher than storm, than earthquake, or than fire.

We beheld his glory as the only son! The branch God made strong to overcome.
An exodus he leads: a people he sets free;
And on the mount he was anointed Prophet, Priest, and King.

O master it is good to be with thee and with thy faithful three:
Here where the apostle's heart of rock is nerved against temptations shock;
Here where the Son of Thunder learns the thought that breaths, the word that burns:
Here where on eagles wings we move with him whose last best creed is love.

O master it is good to be here on the holy mount with thee:
Where darkling in the depths of night, when dazzled with excess of light,
We bow before the heavenly voice that bids bewildered souls rejoice,
Though love wax cold and faith be dim; "This is my son! O hear ye him!"

They Will Come – Isa. 27 & 35; Ezek. 20; Hos. 2; Mal. 4; Matt. 17:11

Behold I send my messenger to prepare the way before;
To turn the hearts of the children unto Abraham, and Isaac, and Israel.
Return o scattered Israel home.

Through the wilderness of the people they will come back to the land
After three thousand years of scattering, now returning as God's planned.
With their hearts turned from their idols through the water of the word,
Though the fire of persecution, now as gold refined and purged.

From the north, from the southern plains, from the land of the rising of the sun,
From the western isles they will come with shouts of joy upon their tongues.

See them gathered unto Euphrates, and to Egypt's River Nile,
See them come down the grassy highway, tis the end of all their trials;
Over Jordan they'll come with singing, as their Father's long before,
And a door of hope is opened by the blood of Christ their Lord!

The redeemed of the LORD shall come back to their Father's land;
And with the house of Judah they shall be one nation,
and worship one Lord, who sits on David's throne restored.
All things have been restored.

Yahweh Is God, Follow Him (Camp Hymn)

The world is many and we are few,
But of our God we must speak the truth.
We must never fear in troubles hour
And learn to trust in Yahweh's power.
For the wicked – the false prophets,
Challenge the God who lives!

And if to God we faithful remain
He will show Himself in the flame!
He will show Himself in His name!

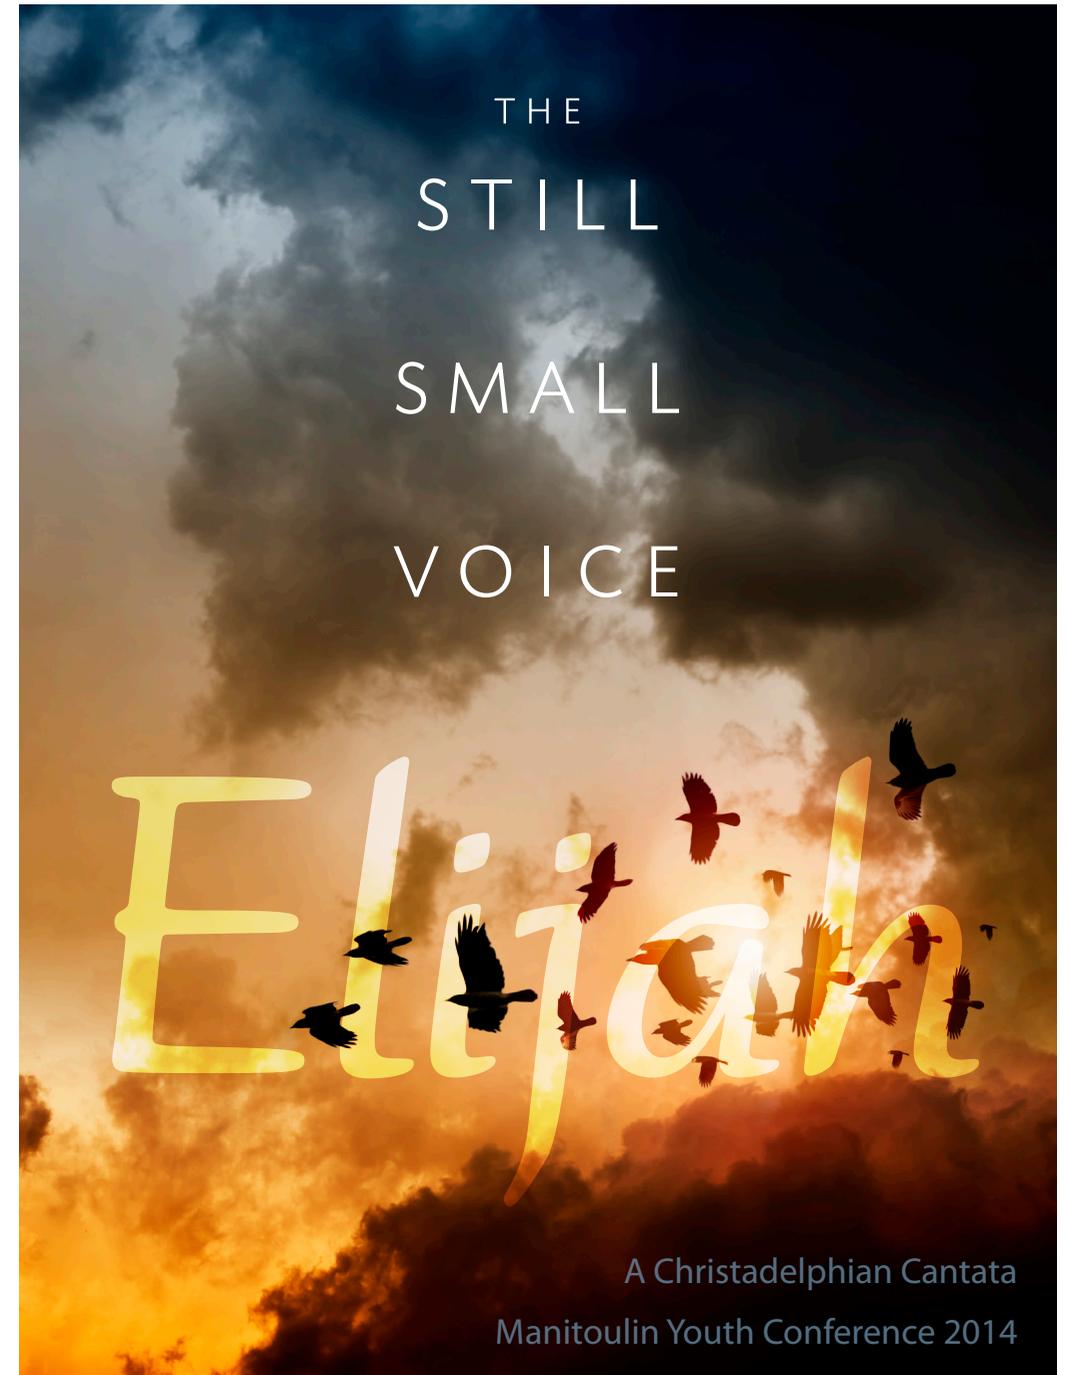

Though the world bows down to the idols around
We must hold true to our God;
Although sin is strong, and many do wrong,
We must hold true to our God.

God did show forth His power to all
When Elijah upon His name did call.
And though their idols they did defend,
God did triumph in the end!
The fire did descend, and the people did change their ways!

Because to Him we faithful remain
He will show Himself in the flame!
He will show Himself in His name!

Yahweh is God follow Him! (4x)

Incorporating Hymn 238 from the Christadelphian Hymn Book (2002)

As Yahweh Elohim liveth, before whom I stand, there shall not be rain in all the land.

From Gilead's hills of rocks and plains, where flocks of goats descend;
There comes a prophet of the LORD, for truth he will contend.
From kingly thrones to widow's homes, the Word of God he sends;
And by his sufferings he will learn to turn the hearts of men.

For I will raise you up a prophet, from among your brethren he will come;
He will lead you in My ways of truth; he'll be like to Me and like to you;
Therefore hearken unto all that he says and do.

For Jezebel, that wicked one, you brought into My land;
By her seductive flattery you heeded all her plans.
You drank the wine from in her cup, you turned to idols vain:
A faithful remnant flee in fear, in caves to Me draw near.

He will not fear what man can do to him; for he knows that man is dead in all his sins;
But he fears the one who in heaven resides, sending birds to provide for him.

Now through the greater prophet seated at Thy right hand,
May prayer be like a rampart as 'gainst the foe we stand!
For Abraham's God is our God, and Isaac's God is ours!
Ours is the God of Jacob, with His almighty powers!

Give Us Strength – 1 Kings 17&18; Psalms 61, 94, 115, 135

Unto a people who have turned their backs on all Your ways;
And who do not desire to give Thee praise;
You have called us to show them Your righteous way;
Turn their hearts back unto Thee again, we pray.

Am I the only one who cares?
Am I the only one who dares to worship not the works of his own hands, but to worship Thee instead of man?

When we stand alone against the world, give us strength.
As we seek to manifest Thy ways, give us strength.
We look to Thee, our rock, when the world is raging all around us;
We place our trust in Thee; help us stand against the world around us;
Thou art the living God who will be known here and abroad;
And our defence and our high tower, our God of all power.

The world would have us turn aside from following after Thee,
For all Your words of truth they won't believe;
But You've promised to those who would on Thee lean,
That Your goodness and Your mercy they will see.

We place our hope and trust in Thee: Our deliverer who has set us free!
Thy word and truth they shall endure forever!

In a dry and thirsty land, where the waters cease at God's command;
When we'd lost all hope to live, then you sent the one who salvation gives!

You sent Your son to provide the water of life,
Sustaining us through the darkest night;
And bread from above he gave us in love that we might live in him.

For You have raised us up to walk in newness of life,
And given us hope from above: a vision burning in our eyes;
Till the dawn of morning light sustain us through the night;
Till the day when Christ returns and all Your Holy word will learn.

In a land of sin and death, where we labour till we give our breath,
Where our Lord identified with our sorrows, now he doth hear our sighs.

Rain down Your word! Bring Christ's return!
Let the earth yield her increase; let sin and sorrow cease.
And till that coming day, sustain us now we pray.

Does Baal Not Hear? – 1 Kings 18

©2014 – Levi Myers & Chase Snobelen; Arranged by Darryl Rose

Elijah:
How long halt ye between two opinions?
If Yahweh be God follow Him. But if Baal, then follow him.

Baal Worshipers:
O Baal hear us now we cry to you.
O Baal hear our cry! Your prophets have drawn nigh!
We call out to the sky! We cut ourselves with knives!
All we ask is to send fire: this is our one desire.
We know that you are higher than this man's God!

Elijah:
Does Baal not hear? Cry louder, he may not be near!
He is sleeping, or walking, or very far away!
Yahweh, I pray, let it be known this day that You're the only one we should obey.
LORD answer me, and let these people see, and turn their hearts again back unto Thee.

All Voices:
Israel's true God has triumphed this Day!
He has shown Himself in the flame!
He has shown Himself in His name!
Yahweh is God, follow Him!

The Still Small Voice – 1 Kings 19

©2014 – Levi Myers & Dave Styles; Arranged by Darryl Rose

They forsake, tare down, and slay Your covenant alters and Your seers;
Are there none who still obey Your ways? Is there no one who still cares?
In these times of weakness, LORD, when alone we feel in zeal,
Speak to us through Thy most Holy word; we incline to You and kneel.

And though it seems all that's left is us, we won't give up: in God we trust!
In this our mission we will strive: His name will be glorified.
In Him we are strong and do rejoice, for we have made our choice:
The still small voice.

We do need You strength, o LORD, to fight the nature that we bare;
Nourish us through Thy most Holy word, with Thy tender loving care.
God provides for us each day, giving strength to carry on.
He will be our guide and lead the way until this our journey's done.

Our God who holds the power of the earthquake, wind, and fire;
Speaks in ways both great and small; He hears us when we call;
His hand unseen gives strength when we might fall.
